

“Marin Organic: Preserving Farmland and Growing Food Justice” SAMPLE ITINERARY

- 8:30am Leave Oakland for Marin County
- 10:00 Arrive at Star Route Farms in Bolinas (the longest standing, continuous organic certification in California!); Farm Tour and volunteer with the Marin Organic Glean Team and Youth Leadership Institute; Help glean extras from the fields for donation to underserved schools and food pantries.
- Special Guest: Janet Brown, food justice pioneer and farmer of Allstar Organics*
- 11:00 Tour and gleaning of Fresh Run Farm, also in Bolinas, with farmer Peter Martinelli
- 12:00 Local organic lunch and cheese tasting at Cowgirl Creamery in Point Reyes Station
- Special Guests: Cheesemaker Peggy Smith and Constance Washburn, Education Director of MALT (Marin Agricultural Land Trust)*
- 1:30 Visit McEvoy Ranch in western Petaluma; Organic garden tour followed by wine and olive oil tasting
- 3:00 Visit County Line Harvest in western Petaluma for one last gleaning
- 3:45 Donate our gleanings to Novato Unified School District
- Special Guest: Miguel Villarreal, Director of Food Services for Novato Unified School District*
- 4:30 Depart for Oakland